

測驗二：「詞彙題(含搭配詞)」50 題。

作答方式：

1. 請作答於測驗二「詞彙題」答案卡上。
2. 測驗二「詞彙題」請依照題意從選項中選出一個正確或最佳的答案，並用黑色2B鉛筆在答案卡上相應的位置畫記，請務必將選項塗黑、塗滿。如果需要修改答案，請使用橡皮擦擦拭乾淨，重新塗黑答案。

一、單選題

1.	The teacher gave us _____ time to finish the exam, so I didn't feel rushed and could double-check my answers. (A) spontaneous (B) satisfactory (C) religious (D) sufficient
2.	The travel agency offers a holiday _____ that includes flights, hotels, and tours, which attracts many people who don't have time to plan their vacations. (A) bundle (B) parcel (C) unity (D) troop
3.	Due to an aging _____, many countries face challenges such as higher medical costs and fewer young workers. (A) appearance (B) environment (C) population (D) platform
4.	He made a _____ decision without thinking about the results, which he regretted later. (A) private (B) desirable (C) frank (D) hasty
5.	The company offered an attractive _____, which motivated employees to work harder even though the project was extremely challenging. (A) heritage (B) obstacle (C) incentive (D) boundary
6.	Losing the debate, Eric had to _____ his pride and commend the other team even though he still thought his arguments were stronger. (A) coat (B) bite (C) swallow (D) pack
7.	After PE class, Sandy rushed to the locker room to _____ her sweaty face before the next lesson started. (A) clear (B) erase (C) relax (D) towel
8.	The conceptual artist sought to _____ a new term, "chromatic resonance," to describe her method of using sound waves to influence the viewer's perception of color. (A) coin (B) bring (C) draw (D) report
9.	The two-day program, which included lectures and small-group discussions, began with a(n) _____ designed to help newcomers adapt to the company's culture. (A) orientation (B) perspective (C) syndrome (D) formula
10.	Since the storm was expected to last for days, the city decided to _____ its rescue operations so that help could reach remote areas more quickly. (A) regulate (B) negotiate (C) intensify (D) postpone
11.	During the trial, the jury grew uneasy when the defendant's testimony revealed a striking _____ with the earlier statements of key witnesses, raising doubts about the credibility of the case. (A) conviction (B) conception (C) complication (D) contradiction

	12.	The accountant, noting that expenses would be calculated later, explained that the company's _____ for the last quarter was not equal to its net profit. (A) inventory (B) gross (C) criterion (D) distribution
	13.	Historians agree that the invention of the printing press came at a(n) _____ moment in European history, as it advanced the spread of knowledge across the continent. (A) prime (B) hostile (C) shady (D) alien
	14.	Trained listeners can _____ between the pitch of a violin string and that of a piano key struck at nearly the same frequency. (A) articulate (B) authorize (C) commute (D) discriminate
	15.	Several environmental groups forged a(n) _____ to pressure the government into passing stricter laws on carbon emissions and deforestation. (A) hypothesis (B) constitution (C) alliance (D) inspection
	16.	The teacher presented a clear and _____ plan to enhance students' reading skills, with each step logically built and developed on the last. (A) coherent (B) conservative (C) elastic (D) cognitive
	17.	By midnight, detectives had _____ every possible lead, leaving the investigation at a standstill until fresh evidence emerged. (A) exceeded (B) clarified (C) exhausted (D) allocated
	18.	As more people entered the discussion, the conversation seemed to _____ from casual small talk into a heated debate about ethics and responsibility without a focus. (A) franchise (B) integrate (C) draft (D) drift
	19.	Honesty is a _____ principle in journalism. Without truth, readers cannot trust the information provided by reporters. (A) strategic (B) reverse (C) pathetic (D) cardinal
	20.	She was very _____ when discussing the company's problems, avoiding details that might embarrass her colleagues or damage reputations. (A) discreet (B) vicious (C) vulnerable (D) analytical
	21.	Students with excellent attendance were _____ from the final exam, as the teacher believed they had already demonstrated strong understanding. (A) feasible (B) deliberate (C) exempt (D) comprehensive
	22.	It was difficult to _____ his reaction during the meeting, since his expression revealed little about his true feelings. (A) gauge (B) withhold (C) soothe (D) reconcile
	23.	If you cause damage to rented property, you are _____ for the cost of repairs under the rental agreement. (A) pending (B) liable (C) tentative (D) unconditional
	24.	You may ignore the safety warnings on the mountain trail at your _____, since sudden storms can appear without notice. (A) escort (B) peril (C) hurdle (D) morale

25.	Soldiers were ordered to _____ guard over the palace gates all night, protecting the royal family from possible attacks or intruders. (A) unify (B) peek (C) summon (D) mount
26.	After a slow start in the debate, she soon got into her _____ and began presenting her arguments clearly and confidently. (A) stature (B) stagger (C) stride (D) stutter
27.	Many business owners are _____ of the new tariff policies, fearing that higher import costs will reduce their competitiveness in global markets. (A) accountable (B) reminiscent (C) wary (D) formidable
28.	Researchers have launched a(n) _____ into how artificial intelligence may accelerate the decline of certain jobs and positions, raising concerns about unemployment and social inequality. (A) toll (B) probe (C) notion (D) obligation
29.	To uphold stability and strengthen its role as a regional hub, Singapore has sought to _____ its trade policies with neighboring Asian countries. (A) align (B) yield (C) undermine (D) boycott
30.	Digital innovation has become a central _____ of contemporary art, with technologies like AI and virtual reality reshaping how artists create and audiences experience their work. (A) monarch (B) descent (C) quest (D) pillar

二、題組

【題組一】

31. The mayor promised to _____ the city's worsening traffic jam problems by improving public transportation, building new bike lanes, and implementing smart traffic light systems.
32. In an effort to enhance the customer experience, the local bookstore will _____ five dollars for gift wrapping services during the holiday season.
33. The strong aroma of freshly brewed coffee _____ the burnt smell of toast so completely that only its warm and rich fragrance lingered in the air.
34. The pianist had spent countless hours in the practice room and _____ her technique before she performed at the spring recital last month.
35. All student council members _____ to the plan to cancel the talent show, arguing that it was the most exciting event of the school year.

(A) masked	(B) perfected	(C) address
(D) mention	(E) objected	(F) charge

【題組二】

36. During the summer holiday, the crowded beach _____ with tourists carrying umbrellas, coolers, and children eager to play in the sand.
37. Although the famous scientist _____ from a small village, he later became known worldwide for his groundbreaking research on renewable energy.
38. All athletes _____ by the strict rules of the competition, knowing that fairness and honesty were essential for winning public respect.
39. The invention of the smartphone _____ in a new age of instant communication, changing how people lived, worked, and interacted daily.
40. The experienced professor _____ over the university's graduation ceremony, guiding students onto the stage and congratulating each one for their hard work.

(A) abided	(B) swarmed	(C) presided
(D) hailed	(E) defected	(F) ushered

【題組三】

Check this out: you've met someone before, but he has a hard time recognizing you. He may excuse himself by saying "Sorry, I am bad with faces." You might think he is just trying to __41__ off an awkward moment. But the truth is, being bad with faces may not be an excuse; doctors may actually __42__ it as a medical condition. It's known as prosopagnosia, or face blindness, and a new study warns that it's something we should all be more aware of.

A study conducted in the UK and the US indicated that more than 55% of the interviewed patients struggled to recognize close friends and family members when they saw them in an unexpected context or __43__. According to the UK's National Health Service, face blindness affects not only the ability to identify faces but emotions on other people's faces, making it harder to form relationships, or cause serious mental health for those who suffer this disorder.

To better manage the effect of face blindness, one such approach widely suggested is developing memorable links between a person's __44__, using objects or locations through regular contacts. Also workable is memorizing unique facial cues, such as skin tones, mouth movements or unusual eyebrows, to distinguish among close friends and __45__. After all, no one wants to be considered rude. The earlier the practices, the higher chance to connect better.

(A) encounters	(B) diagnose	(C) acquaintances
(D) shrug	(E) justify	(F) characteristics

【題組四】

The gut microbiome is a complex ecosystem of trillions of microorganisms inside human body. It profoundly impacts our health beyond simple digestion. This microscopic community, comprised of various bacteria, fungi, and viruses, can __46__ itself in a number of physiological functions. It helps with the breakdown of complex carbohydrates that our bodies cannot process on their own and is responsible for the synthesis of key vitamins. The maintenance of this ecosystem is an essential __47__ of overall digestive efficiency. The gut microbiome also plays a notable role in metabolic function and nutrient absorption.

Beyond its direct digestive role, the gut microbiome exerts a significant influence on our broader well-being, particularly through its interaction with the immune and nervous systems. This microbial community is integral to immune system development and function, acting as a crucial trainer that helps the body __48__ between beneficial substances and harmful pathogens. The health of the gut is also intimately linked to the gut-brain axis, a communication pathway that connects the digestive tract to the central nervous system. This __49__ of communication means that an imbalanced microbiome, a state known as dysbiosis, has been increasingly associated with both physical and mental health issues. This connection can __50__ a range of health concerns. Therefore, for the longevity of our health, it is vital to nurture a healthy and diverse gut microbiome.

(A) anchor	(B) mechanism	(C) trigger
(D) component	(E) differentiate	(F) manifest